two or more statutes constitute a crime separate from the crimes described in the other statute, the latter does not constitute a lesser-included offense of the former and may not be considered as a lesser-included offense. Accordingly, we find no error in the district court's refusal to charge the jury on assault in the third degree. III. For the foregoing reasons, Defendant's conviction and sentence are affirmed. Affirmed. SHARP, J., and MATHIAS, J., concur. NOTES [1] Ind.Code § 35-42-2-1(a) (1988). [2] IND.CODE § 35-42-2-1(b) (1988). Id. at 362 (footnote omitted). [6] We have also determined that battery, under the circumstances of this case, cannot be said to be a lesser-included offense of the crime of intimidation. See Ind.
